HOW CAN WE PARTNER?

Founded in 1978, Theatre Kent is a non-profit organization that has been entertaining local audiences for over four decades. Theatre Kent is dedicated to producing high-quality theatrical performances while providing opportunities for community members to participate in various aspects of theatre production.

As a cornerstone of Chatham-Kent's cultural scene, Theatre Kent plays an important role in fostering creativity, building community connections, and providing accessible live entertainment for residents of the area.

We would love to talk with you about how we can partner with you to bring great theatre to life while also supporting your business goals!
